INVESTMENT POLICY

The performance and returns of the Pools are not guaranteed.

JCF staff does not give investment advice and encourages fund holders to consult with their own legal, tax and other professional advisors to make decisions that work best for their charitable gifting goals. It is the responsibility of the fundholder to ensure that the options chosen are consistent with their risk tolerance and charitable objective of the funds. JCF reserves the right to make changes to this policy and the investment options at any time.

Eligible Funds for Donor Recommended Investment Options

- New and existing Donor Advised Funds (does not include B'nai Tzedek Funds)
- New and existing Organization Custodial Accounts

Fund Balance Requirements

No minimum fund balance is required to change investment options. Other fund balance restrictions may apply.

Allocations Amounts

Allocations may be made in increments of 10% to Pools #1 through #4 above. Fixed amounts may be invested in the Impact Pool.

Re-Allocation Frequency and Effective Date

Advisors of the fund may make recommendations at any time. All recommendations must be made in writing. If approved by JCF, the fund will be re-allocated effective the 1st day of the month following approval of the written recommendation and the advisor will be sent a written acknowledgement of the change.

Fund Activity Allocation

All contributions, distributions, expenses, and investment activity will be posted to the fund based on the current allocation.

Fees

There will be no additional fees for this service.

Reporting to Donors

Quarterly fund statements are provided which report the amount the fund has invested in each Pool. Investment activity (interest, dividends, realized/unrealized gains and losses, and fees) are reported in the aggregate.
